13. The C.B.A. requires the Employer to submit contribution reports setting forth the hours that each of its employees worked and the amount covered by the C.B.A. and to remit such monetary contributions in accordance with the C.B.A.

14. Upon information and belief, as a result of work performed by the individual employees of the Employer pursuant to the C.B.A., there became due and owing to the Funds and Union from the Employer contribution reports, fringe benefit contributions and dues check-off.

15. The Employer has failed and refused to remit to the Funds and Union fringe benefit contributions and dues check-off due and owing under the C.B.A. and in accordance with the Trust Indentures for the period July, 2014 through to and including December, 2014 and August, 2015 through to and including October, 2015 in the amount of $28,374.76.

16. These amounts described in paragraph 15 above are due and owing to the Funds and Union are self-reported and are subject to audit.

17. The Employer's failure, refusal or neglect to remit the proper contributions, and dues check-off to the Plaintiffs constitutes a violation of the C.B.A.

18. Pursuant to the C.B.A., as a result of the Employer's delinquency, the delinquent Employer may be required to pay, in addition to the delinquency, interest at the rate of ten (10%) percent per annum from the date contributions should have been paid, together with liquidated damages in the amount of ten (10%) percent of the total delinquency and reasonable legal fees, court costs and disbursements.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

20. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs "1" through "19" of this Complaint as if fully set forth at length herein.

21. Section 515 of ERISA, (29 U.S.C. Section 1145) requires employers to pay fringe benefit contributions in accordance with the terms and conditions of the collective bargaining agreements and/or trust indentures.

22. The Employer has failed to pay or timely pay the fringe benefit contributions owed to Plaintiffs as a result of work performed by individual employees of the Employer. Such failure to make timely payment constitutes a violation of Section 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Section 1145).

23. Section 502 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Section 1132) provides that upon a finding of an employer violation of Section 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Section 1145) which requires employers to pay fringe benefit contributions in accordance with the terms and conditions of collective bargaining agreements, the Court shall award payment to a plaintiff Fund of the unpaid fringe benefit contributions, plus statutory damages and interest on the unpaid principal amount due both computed at a rate set forth in the United States Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C. Section 6621), together with reasonable attorneys' fees and costs and disbursements incurred in the action.

24. The failure to pay has injured the Funds by delaying the investment of contributions and causing unnecessary administrative costs for the Funds and has further injured the participants and beneficiaries and other contributing employers of the benefit plan in the form of lower benefits and higher contribution amounts.

25. Accordingly, the Employer is liable to Plaintiffs under the C.B.A. concerning the payment of fringe benefit contributions and under Sections 502 and 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Sections 1132 and 1145) due to the failure to pay contributions when they are due.

32. The financial integrity of the Plaintiff Funds and the allocation of proper eligibility and credit to the members is determined and are based upon prompt and accurate remittance of reports and fringe benefit contributions from the Employer.

33. Plaintiff Funds have no adequate remedy at law to ensure that the Employer will adhere to their continuing statutory and contractual obligations.

34. The failure of the Employer to promptly remit reports and payment will cause Plaintiffs immediate and irreparable injury unless the Employer and its officers, agents and servants are enjoined from failing, refusing or neglecting to submit the required current monetary contributions and reports to plaintiffs.

35. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiffs are entitled to a permanent injunction enjoining the Employer from any further or future violations of this or subsequent collective bargaining agreements with plaintiff Union, as such agreements apply to the obligation of Employer to the Plaintiffs herein.
